

Marshall Teitelbaum, M.D.
641 University Blvd., #206
Jupiter, FL 33458
561-630-8530
Fax: 561-630-8531

Tax ID - 65-1120940
NPI # - 1336241207

You have the right to receive a "Good Faith Estimate" explaining how much your medical care will cost. Dr. Teitelbaum's fees are as follows:

Initial evaluation	$500
One hour appointment	$450
30 minute follow up (most visits)	$275

You will be charged at the time of each visit.

Please note we have a one business day cancellation policy. If you do not cancel with at least one business day's notice, you will be responsible for the full appointment fee.

If we are obligated to send your account to collections due to non-payment, you will be charged an additional fee that equals 35% of your balance, as well as all costs and expenses, including reasonable collection and attorney's fees incurred during collection efforts.

Dr. Teitelbaum's legal fees are charged at $650/hour. This includes time spent on record review in addition to time spent in depositions, court, and time required out of the office.

We reserve the right to charge up to $1.00/page for medical records and up to $50 for a letter written by Dr. Teitelbaum. Form completion may also incur an expense based on the required time needed proportionately to follow-up appointment rates.

These fees do not include any unknown or unexpected costs that may arise during treatment. You could be charged more if complications or special circumstances occur. If this happens, federal law allows you to dispute (appeal) the bill.

Disclaimer

This Good Faith Estimate shows the costs of items and services that are reasonably expected for your health care needs for an item or service. The estimate is based on information known at the time the estimate was created.

The Good Faith Estimate does not include any unknown or unexpected costs that may arise during treatment. You could be charged more if complications or special circumstances occur. If this happens, federal law allows you to dispute (appeal) the bill.

If you are billed for more than this Good Faith Estimate, you have the right to dispute the bill.

You may contact the health care provider or facility listed to let them know the billed charges are higher than the Good Faith Estimate. You can ask them to update the bill to match the Good Faith Estimate, ask to negotiate the bill, or ask if there is financial assistance available.

You may also start a dispute resolution process with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). If you choose to use the dispute resolution process, you must start the dispute process within 120 calendar days (about 4 months) of the date on the original bill.

There is a $25 fee to use the dispute process. If the agency reviewing your dispute agrees with you, you will have to pay the price on this Good Faith Estimate. If the agency disagrees with you and agrees with the health care provider or facility, you will have to pay the higher amount.

You have the right to receive a “Good Faith Estimate” explaining how much your medical care will cost

Under the law, health care providers need to give patients who don't have insurance or who are not using insurance an estimate of the bill for medical items and services.

- You have the right to receive a Good Faith Estimate for the total expected cost of any non-emergency items or services. This includes related costs like medical tests, prescription drugs, equipment, and hospital fees.
- Make sure your health care provider gives you a Good Faith Estimate in writing at least 1 business day before your medical service or item. You can also ask your health care provider, and any other provider you choose, for a Good Faith Estimate before you schedule an item or service.
- If you receive a bill that is at least $400 more than your Good Faith Estimate, you can dispute the bill.
- Make sure to save a copy or picture of your Good Faith Estimate.
